In the continued interest of the health and safety of our campus community, all on-campus events/gatherings of more than 50 non-College employees in the same room - including Bergenstages performances - require proof of vaccination at entry. Attendees must present their official Centers for Disease Control COVID-19 Vaccination Record cards bearing his or her name, a certified document from a healthcare provider (personal physician, the agency that performed the vaccination or the New Jersey Immunization Information System) confirming the administration of the vaccine to him or her, the Docket app bearing his or her name or an official dated test record with his or her name confirming a negative test within the last 48 hours. Public safety will ensure compliance at entry.
